

KNOCK OUR SOCKS OFF!

Check out some of these ideas!
You could get sponsored for doing something, or hold a sale, a raffle or an auction. Or you could charge people to watch a show, or enter a competition or a special sporting event.

FUN FOR SCHOOL

Show steps

Hold an alternative Fashion Show; with outfits made of bin bags, carrier bags and waste items including boxes and yoghurt pots.

Buy 100 penny lollipops and sell them for 50p each. On some, put a red dot on the bottom of the stick with a pen or nail varnish. Stick the lollipops into a block of polystyrene. Whoever gets a lolly with a dot wins a prize or can enter a raffle.

Step up the pace

Divide your class into two teams and give each one a large container. Then challenge one half to collect as many 5p coins as possible. The losing team has to do an embarrassing forfeit, or do all the school chores for a week.

You'd raise even more money if you got all the classes in your school to compete against each other.

Create gourmet lunch boxes to be auctioned. Pay to enter and give prizes for the most creative, nutritious, most humorous etc. Decorate boxes with themes – ie New York, Noah's Ark etc and create a meal to go with the theme of the box.

Foot steps

Organise a fancy dress football match, or a game of football with a rugby ball or sponge ball.

FUN FOR SCHOOL AND WORK

Picture Courtesy of The Evening Press, York

Wear pyjamas to school or work.

Pull your socks up!

Wear silly: socks/hats/slippers to work or school; or hold a 'tasteless' ties/tacky jewellery day, or a dress down day.

Make people pay to put their names into a hat and the lucky winner has a virtual 'birthday' with cake and presents and is taken care of all day at work or school.

Let people make a donation of £1 + in honour of someone they admire. It could be a film star, a cartoon character, a footballer, or a prime minister. Let people be as silly as they like and make sure you write the name of the person they chose on a sticky label so they can proudly display who they picked!

If you need more posters and sponsorship forms, see the order form in the back of this pack or our website at www.bbc.co.uk/pudsey.

Pay in the money as soon as you can!

FUN FOR WORK

Design a your own mini golf area around the office or lobby. Charge people to play and offer a prize for the best player.

Sponsor the clean shaven to 'rough it for a few weeks' and grow a beard, and sponsor those who are already bearded to shave their's off.

Have a one-day 'Lift Toll' and charge anyone who uses the lift.

Take turns to be the office tea slave for the day and get people to make a donation of their choice for each cup they drink.

Future steps

Recruit executives to disguise themselves as fortune tellers or palm readers and read staff fortunes; or have an authentic palm reader who will donate their services for free.

Get the men in your office to have a race to see who can iron the most shirts in a certain amount of time. Make a trophy or medal for the winner. Pay to watch or sponsor them for each shirt they iron, or race men against women.

Organise a departmental pizza party.

Foot note!

Remember: Collections are no problem if they are on private property, for instance, in schools or offices etc. Here you can pass round a bucket without any worries. BUT you need a licence to collect on public property which is a big nuisance. So think of something else!

FOLLOW IN THEIR FOOTSTEPS!

Try out some old favourites!

Foot the bill!

This one's for hairdressers, cabbies, restaurant staff and anyone else who receives tips at work. Make sure you step up the pace at work throughout Appeal Week and then donate your tips to BBC Children in Need!

Auction parking spaces for the day.

Remember, if you've raised money at work you might be able to convince your company to match the total...

Find your feet!

Get sponsored to: walk/run miles on the treadmill! Or hold a sponsored swim; silence; or dance.

Organise a sale of:

cakes, drawings, pudsey cookies or jacket potatoes! And remember, if you sometimes ask for 'a donation of your choice', you might get £5 for something you would only have priced at £1!

Have a fete:

Include stalls, wet sponge throwing, toffee apples, treasure map, lucky dip box; 'jelly beans in a jar count'...

FUN FOR PRIMARY SCHOOL

Paint pictures and sell them to parents for whatever they think they are worth

Cover a large picture of Pudsey with coins.

Pay to be painted with a Pudsey face.

Make and sell school calendars. Draw pictures for each month.

FUN FOR ALL!

Keep your feet on the ground!

Arrange a mini golf tournament at your local course.

Put your feet up!

Have a home movie night. Charge people to watch the film, and to eat popcorn and ice cream.

Toe the line

Make a coupon book of odd jobs, eg. washing up, babysitting, car cleaning, dog walking. Get friends and family to pay each time they need a job done.

THINK OF AN IDEA!

You don't have to knock everyone's socks off! It doesn't have to be brainy, brilliant or breathtaking. If you just leave a secure collection jar somewhere noticeable in the weeks up to the Appeal, you could still raise a good amount.

STEP 1

PUT UP OUR POSTERS!

In the middle of this Fun Pack we've included a brand new Schools Poster, so if you go to school or college make sure you put it up on your notice board!

In the back pocket we've also included a poster that advertises this year's BBC Children in Need Appeal.

By putting up all our posters, you'll spread the word that the Appeal is coming up. (If other people know this, they might decide to do things to raise money too.)

Ask at schools, libraries, shops, launderettes, hairdressers and supermarkets if you can put them up.

STEP 3

STEP 2

We've given you some 'flyer' posters that have a space in the middle for you to write down details of your event.

Fill these in and put them up everywhere. Tell people everything they'll need to know about the event and make it sound like fun!

LET PEOPLE KNOW ABOUT YOUR EVENT!

Also see 'Pudsey's Publicity Tips' (overleaf).

Put your Pudsey sticker up in a window of your car or home so everyone can see it!!

STEPtoit!

PUT ON YOUR EVENT OR DO THE ACTIVITY - AND HAVE FUN!

STEP 5

COLLECT THE MONEY YOU'VE RAISED AND PAY IT IN!

It's really easy - you can go to your nearest bank, building society or post office and pay the cash in, or post us a cheque.

For more instructions, see the 'Step Safely' page.

STEP 6

STEPtoit!

Tell all your friends to get hold of one of these Fun Packs and arrange their own activities - and, if possible, get everyone at school or work to think of ways to raise money!

For a free Fun Pack they can either call 0845 607 3333 or order via our website on www.bbc.co.uk/pudsey

Remember: more fundraising = more money = more smiles
